ADA OUTSTANDING DIETETIC STUDENT AWARD CRITERIA AND PROCEDURES

The purpose of the outstanding student awards program is to recognize the emerging leadership and achievement of students in ADA-accredited and approved dietetics education programs and encourage their participation in The American Dietetic Association. A student from each type of education program within a state will be selected by each state association (a maximum of 4 per state).

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding students in the Journal, each awardee will receive a certificate signed by the President of The American Dietetic Association and the Chair of the Council on Education.

Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Students

1. Member of the American Dietetic Association. Students must be members by Jan. 1 of the year in which they would receive the award. Students must supply their membership number; membership identification numbers will not be provided to a third party (i.e. educators).
2. Student enrolled in CADA-accredited or approved dietetics education program (CP, DI, DPD, DT).
3. Demonstrated academic achievement as documented by letters from program faculty or preceptor.
4. Demonstrated leadership and professional potential; e.g., honors, student dietetic association activities, community service activities, etc.

Selection Procedure

1. Nominations will be solicited from program faculty or preceptors by the State Associations.
2. Complete responsibility for the selection of outstanding students rests with the State Associations. Coordinator is the CDA Awards Committee Chair. A maximum of one student from each type of dietetics education program within the state may be selected by each state (maximum 4). States may choose not to participate or to select fewer than the maximum number.
3. CDA Central Office will forward individual data sheets for each awardee to the ADA education and accreditation staff by May 1

Award Procedure

1. A certificate and congratulatory letter will be sent to recipients from the ADA President. If a State Association wishes to receive the certificates for presentation at a formal meeting, the ADA Education staff must be notified of the meeting date in writing when data sheets are submitted. Certificates and letters will be sent to recipients in JUNE.
2. The list of outstanding students will be published in the September issue of the Journal.
3. Recipients will be invited to attend ADA Annual Meeting to be recognized during the ADA Business Meeting.

OUTSTANDING DIETETICS EDUCATOR AWARDS CRITERIA AND PROCEDURES

The purpose of the Outstanding Dietetic Educator Award program is to recognize the teaching, mentoring, and leadership activities of faculty and preceptors in CADE-accredited and approved dietetics education programs. One educator or preceptor will be selected from each program type in each geographic area (a maximum of 4 awardees from each of the 7 geographic areas for a total of 28).

In addition to publishing the list of outstanding educators in the Journal, CADE Newsletter, and DEP-line, each awardee will receive a certificate and congratulatory letter from the ADA president. Awards will be presented at the DEP area meetings for educators each spring. Award winners will also be recognized at the Recognition Ceremony and the CDA Awards program book.

Criteria for Selection of Outstanding Educators

1. Member of The American Dietetic Association.
2. Faculty with academic or supervised practice appointments or preceptors in CADE-accredited and approved dietetics education program (CP, DI, DPD, and DT).
3. Demonstrated innovative teaching skills and techniques.
4. Demonstrated mentoring as documented by letters from students (limit three letters per nominee).
5. Demonstrated leadership; e.g., national, state, or district dietetic association activities, community service, honors received, scientific and professional presentations, publications, employment, etc.

Selection Procedures

1. Nominations from peers or students will be made to the Education Council DEP Representative by December 1. A maximum of one educator for each type of dietetics education program in the state (maximum 4 will be selected and sent to the DEP Area Coordinator). The DI categories have been combined. Complete responsibility for selection at this stage rests with the state association. States may choose not to participate or to select fewer than the maximum number.
2. The Education Council DEP Representative will forward nominations to the respective Dietetic Educators of Practitioners DPG (DEP) area coordinator by January 15. Each of the seven DEP geographic areas will select a maximum of one educator for each type of dietetics education program (maximum 4 per area for a total of 28 awardees).
3. DEP area coordinators will forward individual data sheets for each awardee to ADA education and accreditation staff by February 15.

Award Procedure

- Recipients will be recognized at the DEP area meetings for educators each spring. Each will receive a certificate and congratulatory letter from the ADA president.
- The list of outstanding educator award recipients will be published in the spring issues of the CAADE Newsletter and DEP-line and the September issue of the Journal.
- Recipients will receive a name badge ribbon for use at the ADA Food and Nutrition Conference and Exhibition and state meeting following their selection.
- Award winners will also be recognized at the Recognition Ceremony and the CDA Awards program book.

THREE ADA AWARDS OFFERED FOR YOUNG DIETETIC PROFESSIONALS

RECOGNIZED YOUNG DIETITIANS OF THE YEAR AWARD (RYDY)

The purpose of the RYDY program is to recognize the competence and activities of younger dietitians in The American Dietetic Association and to encourage their continued participation in Association affairs. This group will be an additional resource from which leadership of The Association will develop both at the district, state, and national levels.

In addition to publishing the list of RYDYS in the Journal of The American Dietetic Association, each awardee will receive a formal certificate of recognition from the President of the Association.

A. Criteria for Selection of RYDY

1. Member of The American Dietetic Association.
2. Age limit as of April 1, 2010, 35 years or younger (year in which award is given)
3. Active participation in national, state, or district association.
4. Not Previously selected as an RYDY.
5. Demonstrated concern for the promotion of optimal health and nutritional status of the population.
6. Demonstrated leadership, e.g. in legislation, research, education, management, etc., either in the Association or employment.

RECOGNIZED DIETETIC TECHNICIAN OF THE YEAR AWARD (RDTY)

The purpose of the Recognized Dietetic Technician of the Year Award is to recognize the professional contributions of dietetic technicians in The American Dietetic Association and to encourage their continued participation in Association Affairs.

In addition to publishing the list of RDTYs in the Journal of The American Dietetic Association, each awardee will receive a formal certificate of recognition from the President of the Association.

A. Criteria for Selection

1. Technician Membership in The American Dietetic Association. Please verify with candidates.
2. Age limit as of April 1, 2010 is 35 years or younger (year in which award is given)
3. Active participation in national, affiliate, or district association.
4. Not previously selected for this award.
5. Demonstrated concern for the promotion of optimal health and nutritional status of the population.
6. Demonstrated leadership, e.g., legislation, research, education, clinical dietetics, food service management, public relations, career guidance, etc., in the Association or employment.

EMERGING DIETETIC LEADER AWARD

The purpose of the Emerging Dietetic Leader Award is to recognize the competence and activities of dietitians regardless of their age, who have made distinctive contributions early in their dietetics careers to The American Dietetic Association. The award encourages their continued participation in Association affairs. This group will be an additional resource from which the leadership of the Association will develop at the district, state, and national levels.

In addition to publishing the list of Emerging Dietetic Leaders in the Journal of The American Dietetic Association, each awardee will receive a formal certificate of recognition from the President of the Association.

A. Criteria for Selection

1. Membership in The American Dietetic Association. Please verify with candidates.
2. Practice experience not less than 5 years and not greater than 10 years.
3. Active participation in the national, state, or district association for at least 5 years.
4. Not previously selected as an RYDY or RDTY.
5. Demonstrated concern for the promotion of optimal health and nutritional status of the population.
6. Demonstrated leadership, e.g., legislation, research, education, management, etc., in the Association or employment.

Continued

B. Procedure for Selection

1. The maximum number of RYDY, RDTY and Emerging Dietetic Leaders per affiliate, per year, is the same as the number of Affiliate District Associations (CDA may select 10 each year)

C. Action Following Selection

1. A certificate of recognition will be sent to the selectees together with a congratulatory letter from the President of ADA. If a Affiliate Association wishes to receive the certificate for presentation at a formal meeting, national headquarters must be notified in writing when the data sheets are submitted. Certificates are generally ready for distribution each year in July/August.
2. RYDY, RDTY and Emerging Dietetic Leaders recipients will receive a name badge ribbon for use at the ADA Annual Meeting and state meetings following their selection.
3. The list of RYDY, RDTY and Emerging Dietetic Leaders selectees for the year will be published in a fall issue of the Journal of The American Dietetic Association.
4. Award winners will also be recognized at the Recognition Ceremony and the CDA Awards program book.
